

A Hoosick Falls Halloween

By Bea Peterson

The Hoosick Falls Annual Halloween parade drew hundreds of people Tuesday evening. Generations of families participated. After the scare of Hurricane Sandy for two days, the warm and very pleasant weather seemed to draw everyone to Wood Park. As usual, many of the costumes were unique and imaginative. It was a fun time for everyone, especially for the prize winning little kids.