The parade is FREE and open to the public. Each year this event brings out some great costumes and is a fun-filled family event.

UPDATED INFO: Pets are welcome to join in the fun too and will be judged for cutest, funniest, most original, and scariest costumes.

ADDED EVENT: Monday, the 27th of October please come to the HAYC3 Armory for an hour of Halloween crafts being taught by local resident Becky Watson. Kids of all ages are welcome to participate in this free event starting at 6:30PM in the Perry Room.

This event is tradition for many families, and is a great way for kids to show off their costumes ahead of the big trick-or-treating night. Prizes will be awarded to those with the cutest, funniest, most original, and scariest costumes.
