FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 22, 2018

HAYC3 and St. Gobain Partner for the 6th Annual Love Your Village Clean Up Day.

Hoosick Falls, NY – Join the 300+ community members on Saturday, May 5th, 2018 between 9am-12pm and volunteer to help do some spring-cleaning in Hoosick Falls with HAYC3.

On your mark, get set, go get your cleaning team together! Or come on your own. Everyone is encourage to help, this annual project attracts individuals, groups, churches, businesses and organizations each year. Besides giving the village a spruce up, you get to meet and spend time with other who care about their community. And it feels good to do something good. Help tidy up and groom parks, flowerbeds, gardens, sidewalks, and other community spaces and get them ready for the warm weather that is coming any day now.

If you know of a public or community organization's space that needs help, please let us know. We will make every attempt that is covered by one of the groups on cleanup day.

Each team, or group of people, will be assigned a specific area to focus on. Meet at the HAYC3 Armory at 9am to get your assignment.

Special thank you to all the local groups who have already signed up to volunteer: St. Gobain, Immaculate Conception Church, Hoosick Falls Scouts, HFCS National Honor Society, True Value, All Saint's Church, Little Sprouts, KeyBank, HAYC3 Kids. Special Thank you to Niel Stowell and the Village Department for helping to organize the day.

For more information, please call HAYC3 at 518.686.9050, or visit the website: www.hayc3.org.
